Voting Assistance Officers

"To Do" This Month:

☒ Although there are no regularly scheduled Federal primary or general elections this year, there are special Federal elections and state and local elections being held in many localities. Ensure that the citizens you assist have submitted FPCAs to their local election officials to request ballots for these elections and for any changes to their mailing address.

☒ Encourage participation in the 2005 Voting Slogan Contest. The Slogan Contest is a good way to involve people, promote voter awareness and make civic engagement part of their everyday lives. Remember, participants may enter as many slogans in the contest as they wish (see article on page 3).

A roundup of voting news from the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP) for voters, potential voters and those who assist voters.

Voting Assistance Officer Online Training Slides

FVAP provides online training for VAOs at www.fvap.gov. VAOs are encouraged to visit the FVAP site to obtain the latest guidance and information for citizens voting under the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA).

From our home page click on the tab titled "Voting Assistance Officers Training". Visitors to the site will find two sections of the training program: one for use by VAOs in the Uniformed Services and another version for civilian VAOs at U.S. Embassies/Consulates, organizations of overseas civilian United States citizens and corporations that employ U.S. citizens overseas. Both the military and civilian presentations are in three formats: Microsoft PowerPoint, Adobe Acrobat and Text. For site visitors without PowerPoint, a link allowing users to download a free PowerPoint viewer is provided.

Although FVAP will be releasing the 2006 workshop presentation in the Fall, the current training on the website is valid and can be very helpful to new VAOs and as a refresher.

The slide show addresses item-by-item completion of the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) and provides an overview of the top ten resources available from the FVAP to assist VAOs in carrying out their programs. The presentation also explains the DoD Voting Information Center and the Electronic Transmission Service for transmitting (faxing) of election materials. Contact information on the Service and Department of State Voting Action Officers is also provided.

The presentations are accompanied by "speaker's notes" which explain each slide and can be used by VAOs when assisting citizens or training other VAOs, unit members and their families.

To set up your computer screen to view the notes on each slide, click on "PowerPoint Version". Downloading may take up to a few seconds depending on the speed of your Internet connection. Once the presentation is up on your screen, right click over the screen and click on "Edit Slides" on the down select menu. This will bring up the Edit mode and you will be able to arrange the screen to view the notes at the bottom of each slide. You are now able to scroll through each slide and view the notes associated with each slide.

You can also localize the presentation. Download the 2-megabyte presentation to a CDR or local hard-drive, allowing you to run the presentation directly from your computer and make "hard copies" of the slides for printing to 35mm slides or overhead transparencies.

Questions or comments on the online training presentation can be addressed to the FVAP by sending an email to vote@fvap.ncr.gov or using the contact information on page 4. ☒

Help Spread the News! Copy, print and distribute the Voting Information News and News Release Subscription Request Form available in last months issue of this newsletter.

“To Do” This Month

☑ Distribute this newsletter to the people in your organization.

☑ Visit the FVAP Website for current and back issues of this newsletter, News Releases, other information and resources as well as links to other sites of interest in carrying out your VAO duties. Encourage others to visit the site often.

☑ Inventory and replenish your stock of voting materials that were consumed in last year's elections. Federal Postcard Applications (FPCA), SF-76, Federal Write-in Absentee Voting Ballots (FWAB), SF-186, and Voting Assistance Guides are available through your normal supply distribution channels.

☑ Post voting and election information, including this newsletter and the voting news releases on bulletin boards and in unit/installation/ship newspapers to ensure that everyone receives election information in a timely manner.

UOCAVA Absentee Voting and State Absentee Voting – What's the Difference?

The Federal government has assisted certain absentee voters since 1942. In 1986, Congress updated and consolidated the provisions of the Federal Voting Assistance Act of 1955 and the Overseas Citizens Voting Rights Act of 1975 into the Uniformed and Overseas Citizens Absentee Voting Act (UOCAVA). The UOCAVA requires that the states and territories allow certain groups of citizens to register and vote absentee in elections for Federal offices. In addition, many states and territories have developed their own laws allowing citizens covered by the UOCAVA to register and vote absentee in state and local elections as well.

Many states allow non-UOCAVA citizens to vote absentee, but the procedures may be different from those for UOCAVA citizens.

The vast amount of information and the variance of these laws is why it is very important that organization or unit Voting Assistance Officers (VAOs) know the resources and tools available to them for providing assistance. This will avoid any possible delays in voter's registering or requesting an absentee ballot.

VAOs should inform voters to always use the Federal Post Card Application (FPCA, Standard Form 76). The VAO should promote the use of the FPCA and have these available for distribution by maintaining a sufficient number in stock. Using the FPCA will notify the local election official (LEO) that the voter is covered under the UOCAVA and the LEO will know to respond accordingly.

To guide UOCAVA citizens and help clarify voting procedures, the VAO should:

- Know how to use the Voting Assistance Guide.
- Be familiar with the vast amount of resources available at the FVAP website (www.fvap.gov).
- Read their organization/Service's Voting Action Plan.
- Attend and conduct voting assistance workshop/training.

If you cannot find voting assistance locally, please feel free to contact FVAP (see information on page 4).

FVAP and AdCouncil to "Fight Mannequinism"

In an effort to increase civic engagement among the U.S. population with an emphasis on 18-24 year olds, the Federal Voting Assistance Program (FVAP) in conjunction with the Ad Council launched new Public Service Announcements (PSAs) in March as an extension of the Get Out The Vote campaign. The new television and radio spots urge citizens to become involved in their communities in any way they can, including voting in local elections, volunteering in their spare time or becoming informed about current events.

The PSAs humorously created a world where people who become inactive and disengaged turn into mannequins. The campaign communicates to young adults that acting on what is important to them will protect them from developing "mannequinism" and keep them engaged in the world around them.

The PSAs end with the tagline "Protect yourself from mannequinism. Volunteer. Vote. Stay Informed. It's easy to get involved." The ads direct audiences to visit www.fightmannequinism.org, for information on how to become civically engaged. ☑

2005 FVAP Publications

In preparation for the year 2006 elections, the FVAP is busy updating and preparing new materials. Below is a list of some of the new and updated materials that the FVAP will make available this fall. Military and Civilian Voting Assistance Officers (VAOs) are urged to check the FVAP Website at www.fvap.gov and this newsletter for information on requesting new supplies as soon as they are available in order to prepare for the upcoming 2006 elections.

- Distribution of the 2006-2007 Voting Assistance Guide
- Redesigned Federal Post Card Application (FPCA) Standard Form 76
- Redesigned Federal Write-In Absentee Ballot (FWAB) Standard Form 186
- The 2006 Primary Elections calendar listing state primary dates
- New motivational posters to increase voter awareness among U.S. citizens worldwide

As a VAO, all voting materials should be available to you through your normal distribution channels. Your organization or Service Voting Action Officer will assist you with ordering your voting materials (contact information on page 3). For additional help please contact the FVAP (contact information on page 4). Note: E-mail is proving to be one of the most effective and efficient means of communicating with the FVAP. ☒
